

Scoring the Disability of the Arm, Shoulder, and Hand (DASH) Questionnaire:

The DASH is a self-report questionnaire designed to measure physical function, symptoms, and social role function in people with upper extremity musculoskeletal disorders.¹ The questionnaire allows clinicians to have a single, reliable instrument to assess any or all joints in the upper extremity. The DASH measures physical disability and symptoms in various upper extremity disorders. It addresses a broad spectrum of upper extremity functional abilities and demands, including work, leisure and self-care activities.¹

Scoring

Patients are asked to answer all sections and respond based on their ability to perform activities over the past week; only one answer per question.

At least 27 of the 30 items must be completed for scoring.

The assigned values are summed and divided by the number of questions answered. This value is transformed to a score out of 100 by subtracting 1 and multiplying by 25.

Minimum detectable change (MDC): 12.7 points; current literature holds 12.7 points to be the minimal change in score to be statistically significant at the 95% confidence interval.²

Minimum clinically important difference (MCID): 15 points; this represents the change in score needed to be considered clinically significant.²

DASH DISABILITY/SYMPTOM SCORE = 05.83 ([(sum of n responses / n) - 1] x 25, where n is the number of completed responses.)

A DASH score may not be calculated if there are greater than 3 missing items.
